3. REQUEST FOR DIFFERENT CLASSIFICATION

A. Retail Clients

3.1. A “Retail Client” has the right to request a different classification as a ‘Professional Client’, but he/she will be afforded a lower level of protection. The Company is not obliged to deal with him/her under a different classification.

3.2. Tests and Criteria: The Company is allowed to treat any of the retail Clients as professionals provided that the relevant criteria and procedures mentioned below are met. Any waiver of the protection afforded by the standard conduct of business regime will be effected only if an adequate assessment of the expertise, experience and knowledge of the Client, undertaken by the Company, gives reasonable assurance, in light of the nature of the transactions or services envisaged, that the Client is capable of making his own investment decisions and fully understands the risks involved.

3.3. The fitness test applied to managers and directors of entities licensed in the financial sector under MiFID could be regarded as an example of the assessment of expertise and knowledge. In the case of small entities, the person subject to the above assessment should be the person authorized to carry out transactions on behalf of the entity.

3.4. In the course of the above assessment, as a minimum, two (2) of the following criteria should be satisfied:

1. the Client has carried out transactions, in significant size, on the relevant market at an average frequency of 10 per quarter over the previous four quarters;
2. the size of the Client's Financial Instruments portfolio, defined as including cash deposits and Financial Instruments exceeds EUR 500.000,-;
3. the Client works or has worked in the financial sector for at least one (1) year in a professional position, which requires knowledge of the transactions or services envisaged.

3.5. Procedure: Retail Clients may waive the benefit of the detailed rules of conduct applicable to them only where the following procedure is followed:

1. they must state in writing to the Company that they wish to be treated as a 'Professional Client', either generally or in respect of a particular investment service or transaction, or type of transaction or product;
2. the Company will give them a clear written warning of the protections and investor compensation rights they may lose;
3. they must state in writing, in a separate document from the User Agreement (business Terms and Policies), that they are aware of the consequences of losing such protections and accept them;
4. before deciding to accept any request for waiver, the Company is required to take all reasonable steps to ensure that the Client requesting to be treated as a 'Professional Client' meets the relevant tests and criteria above.

B. Professional Clients

3.6. A "Professional Client" has the right to request a different classification as a 'Retail Client' in order to obtain a higher level of protection.

3.7. It is the responsibility of the Client, initially considered to be a 'Professional Client', to ask for a higher level of protection when it deems it is unable to properly assess or manage the risks involved. This higher level of protection will be provided when a Client, who is considered to be a 'Professional Client', enters into a written agreement with the Company to the effect that it shall not be treated as a 'Professional Client' for the purposes of the applicable conduct of business regime. Such agreement will specify whether this applies to one or more particular services or transactions, or to one or more types of products or transactions. In the case, that Client requires to shift from a Retail Client to the classification of a Professional Client or Eligible Counterparty, he / she fully acknowledges that he / she is then subject to losing protection and hence is exposed to higher level of risk.

C. Eligible Counterparties

3.8. An “Eligible Counterparty” has the right to request a different classification either as a ‘Professional Client’ or as a ‘Retail Client’ in order to obtain a higher level of protection. According to the Investment Services and Activities and Regulated Markets Law, the Company is not obliged to deal with the Client on this basis.

1. Request for different classification from an Eligible Counterparty to become a Professional Client: It is the responsibility of the Client, initially considered to be an ‘Eligible Counterparty’, to ask for a higher level of protection when it deems it is unable to properly assess or manage the risks involved. This higher level of protection will be provided when a Client, who is considered to be an ‘Eligible Counterparty’, enters into a written agreement with the Company to the effect that it shall not be treated as an ‘Eligible Counterparty’ for the purposes of the applicable conduct of business regime. Such agreement will specify whether this applies to one or more particular services or transactions, or to one or more types of products or transactions.
2. Request for different classification from an Eligible Counterparty to become a Retail Client: The Client will therefore lose protection and should fully recognize that this applies greater level of risk on his / her investments. The Client enters into a written agreement with the Company to the effect that it shall not be treated as an ‘Eligible Counterparty’ for the purposes of the applicable conduct of business regime. Such agreement will specify whether this applies to one or more particular services or transactions, or to one or more types of products or transactions.
